Children's Programming

Builder's Patch: Stop in this month during our two fun programs to create. Join us on November 2 at 4:30 to create a Day of the Dead Mask to take with you. Then join us again on November 16 to play with Lego bricks. It is a free build day, so come show off your skill.

Family Caramel Apple Night: Come make a delicious caramel apple to take with you on November 14 at 4:30. To be guaranteed an apple, you must sign up by November 13. Limited spots.

Nut Job 2: Free Family Movie on November 28 at 4:30. Popcorn and soda will be served.

Christmas Salt Dough Ornaments: Come make a special Christmas Salt Dough ornament on November 30 from 4:30-5:30. The library will bake them and have them ready for pick up the next day after 3:00.

Storytime: Storytime is Wednesday mornings at 11:00. This short program is great for preschoolers and combines books with art and music. The theme for the month of November is Fall.

Christmas Family Ornament Painting

The last canvas night of the year will be November 9 at 4:30. For this canvas night, participants will be creating a piece of art that will be perfect for decorating or Christmas gifts. For $10.00, participants will get a 11" x 14" canvas and all supplies needed to complete the project. This project is meant more for elementary students through adulthood. Younger kids can work with parents to create a picture. Snacks will also be provided.

Novel Points Book Club: Heroines of Mercy Street

HEROINES OF MERCY STREET tells the true stories of the nurses at Mansion House, the Alexandria, Virginia, mansion turned war-time hospital and setting for the new PBS drama Mercy Street. Among the Union soldiers, doctors, wounded men from both sides, freed slaves, politicians, speculators, and spies who passed through the hospital in the crossroads of the Civil War, where nurses gave their time freely and willingly to save lives and aid the wounded.

These women saw casualties on a scale Americans had never seen before, and medicine was at a turning point. HEROINES OF MERCY

STREET follows the lives of women like Dorothea Dix, Mary Phinney, Anne Reading, and more before, during, and after their epic struggle in Alexandria and reveals their personal contributions to this astounding period in the advancement of medicine. Pick up a copy at the adult circulation desk and then join us for discussion on November 27 at 5:30.

Crafty Crew: Soup It Up!

The next two months are going to be tasty. This is the perfect time to pick up some new recipes for the coming cold weather. On November 7 at 6:30, the crew will be getting together to Soup It Up! What does this mean? Simply bring a pot of your favorite soup (or even a new type that you have wanted to try) and the recipe for it. Then come and enjoy soups with the rest of the crew! Take a copy of a recipe home for your favorite new soup or just sit back and enjoy!

Looking ahead to December 5 at 6:30, Cookie Swap! Bring 3 dozen cookies to swap to get ahead in your holiday preparations. Everyone who brings cookies will leave with a selection of 3 dozen cookies of tastiness to take home.

Reminder: Butter Braids will be delivered on November 9. If you have purchased one, please remember to stop and pick it up.

Coming in December!!!

During Christmas in Ligonier on December 2 from 8:30-10:30, the library will have a live reindeer for pictures and petting. Drop in and see him!

Teen Corner: Will It Pie?

Do you wanna build a pie, man? Yes, those are pickles on a pie. This crazy program for grades fifth through twelfth will answer that age old question, Will It Pie? Join Jed on November 21 at 5:00 as he combines odd ingredients to see if it will successfully pie or not. Sign up is required.
