Crafty Crew Corner

The theme for the month of June is Fresh! Join us on June 5 at 6:00 to share your favorite Fresh recipes to get ready for the summer. Bring a dish to share and the recipe. Everyone will get to taste test all the dishes! You will also learn about July's project, get your pattern and see a sample.

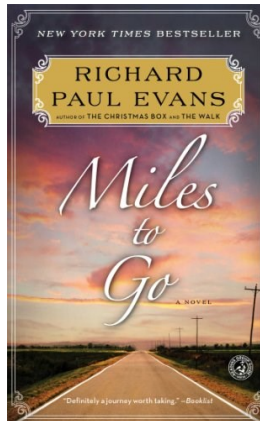

July's theme for the monthly project is Aprons. Bring your own pre-cut fabric and we will help you to create your own special apron. Join us at 6:00 on July 3. You must attend the June meeting or stop in to pick up information and your patterns to pre-cut your fabric.

Novel Points Book Club: Travel

Follow the inspirational journey of a former stockbroker who leaves his unfulfilling desk job in search of a meaningful life. He sets out from Los Angeles on a vintage motorbike, determined to circumnavigate the globe surviving only on the kindness of strangers. Meets June 25, 5:30.

In Miles to Go, Alan Christoffersen, a once-successful advertising executive, wakes one morning to find himself injured, alone, and confined to a hospital bed in Spokane, Washington. Sixteen days earlier, reeling from the sudden loss of his wife, his home, and his business, Alan left everything he knew behind and set off on an extraordinary cross-country journey. Meets July 30, 5:30

Adult Programming

Stained Glass Class

Join John Miretti of Miretti Glass as you complete a 3 hour workshop. Every participant will end up with an 8" x 6" little masterpiece created by you. Cost of class is $12 per person for supplies. You must sign up at the library and put money down to hold your space. Money is non-refundable. This is an adult only class. Class can be paid for through cash or check made out to Miretti Stained Glass. Very limited class size so sign up fast!

June 12 1:00 $12.00 or June 13 5:00 $12.00

Mocktails and Canvas "American Sky"

June 26 5:00 (open to elementary ages and up) $10.00

Want to let out your creative side? Come June 26 for our fun painting program for all ages and talent. Adults and children are welcome to attend. The class will go from 5:00-6:30. Participants will get to paint a delightful picture on an 11" x 14" canvas that they will get to take home with them. You will also get to learn to make a non-alcoholic version of a favorite cocktail. $10 per person includes cost of canvas and all supplies. This project is recommended for upper elementary aged children through adulthood. You must sign up to attend by placing money down to hold your spot. Sign up by June 23. Limited class size. The library only accepts cash or check.

Don't Fear Your Instant Pot! Cooking Under Pressure

Join us on Tuesday, June 3rd at 5:00 PM for Cooking Under Pressure! During this class, Purdue Extension hopes you will learn about Cooking Under Pressure safely.

The new Electric Programmable Pressure Cookers (EPPC) are a very popular appliance in home kitchens. So if you would like to learn more about the features, the benefits, how to operate, and sources of good recipes...because you are considering a purchase OR you have one but haven't taken it out of the box – then this class is for you! The class will be presented by Abigail Creigh, MS RD CD – Health & Human Science Educator of Purdue Extension-Noble County.

Doppler and Dixie Fieldtrip: One State/ One Story: Frankenstein Event!

Join us Friday, July 27 at 1:00 at the Dixie Sternwheeler. You can explore the power of nature and how technology has changed with this fieldtrip to ride the Dixie Sternwheel Boat and a behind-the-scenes tour of Northwest Indiana Weather Station. In the book, Frankenstein by Mary Shelley, we can see how nature was harnessed to bring alive Frankenstein's monster and how a change in technology can revolutionize the world. The Dixie Sternwheeler, originally based on the steam engine and built in 1929, is Indiana's oldest sternwheel paddleboat still being used. Through the grant, the first 20 participants will get to attend this program for free. Transportation to the Dixie and Northwest Indiana Weather Station is on your own. You must be signed up by July 25 to attend. Limited group size. You will receive more information upon signing up.

Children are allowed to attend but must be fifth grade or up.

One State / One Story: Frankenstein is an Indiana Humanities program and has been made possible in part by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and in partnership with the Indiana State Library and Indiana Center for the Book.
